

WM SKILL EDGE
NATURE CAMP
TEAM

G. Malleshappa, is the founder of Swami Vivekananda Seva Trust (svst) & Honorary Wildlife Warden of four wildlife sanctuaries in the Chamaranagara district: B.R. Hills, Bandipur National Park, Malaymahadeshwara Wildlife Sanctuary, and Cauvery Wildlife Sanctuary. Nominated 5 times to the position of warden by Chief Minister of Karnataka for his good rapport with tribals and forest officers, intimate knowledge of the forest, track record of wildlife conservation. He is particularly passionate about taking the conservation message to schools, adults, involving children, teachers, and guests in projects that raise awareness about the biorich world of the forests.

Prithvi. MN is a visionary, inventor who is aiming to be a better Entrepreneur through innovation, sustainability, by redefining life and making our surroundings more interesting. Worked under various capacities in INGO'S in Germany, Italy, Sweden & Poland. He is also founder of White Myst Ventures LLP, WM Skill Edge, Indigo Studio and Infozeal OÜ.

WM SKILL EDGE
NATURE CAMP
TEAM

Aarav Taraporvala is an entrepreneur from India, with a passion for sports and wildlife. After residing in Australia and graduated at University of Sydney. His passion has led to the creation of Nature camps by Skill Edge, where students and adults can enjoy being immersed in nature, while also being educated about issues in the forests such as poaching, man-animal conflict, deforestation, global warming etc..

Colonel Pranay Chandra is a veteran from the Indian Armed Forces and has a deep passion for nature and wildlife. His passion led him to wildlife photography and his images have won accolades in the much acclaimed Sanctuary Asia annual wildlife awards. He was a finalist in the Natural History Museum annual WPOY awards for 2010. He has provided his assistance to WWF India in training of Forest Departmental staff at Corbett, Dudhwa and Pakke Tiger Reserves. He has also been involved with CEC, New Delhi. (Consortium for Educational Communication). Pranay is also a consultant at Gamewatchers safaris in Masai Mara, Kenya.